

16 August 2016
For Immediate Release:

MORGAN WINERY NAMES NEW KEY ACCOUNTS MANAGER

Marc Cutino Joins Morgan Sales Team. Will Handle Northern California Restaurant and Retail Customers.

Monterey County, CA: Morgan Winery, one of the Central Coast's best known brands, has announced the recent hiring of Marc Cutino as their new Key Accounts Manager.

Mr. Cutino brings many years of industry experience and success to Morgan. A graduate of the University of California, he has most recently managed Stave Wine Bar at Pebble Beach Resorts. Prior to that, Marc was Regional Sales Manager with Talbott Vineyard and was Cellarmaster at Monterey's famed Sardine Factory restaurant.

Dan Lee, Morgan Winery's owner, is excited about the new addition to his team: "I have known Marc for years. He knows both sides of the sales equation. Marc's proven track record of customer service and market knowledge will be invaluable in helping us build long-term relationships with key buyers."

Mr. Cutino's will be responsible for representing Morgan to restaurant and retail customers from Santa Barbara to San Francisco. He will be working closely with Morgan's California distributors – Monterey Bay Wine Company, and Astoria Wines – to provide on and off-premise access to Morgan's highly rated, limited releases.

(about morgan press release footer)

#

Contact: Jason Auxier 831.751.7770 jason@morganwinery.com