Wine Spectator

90 Points – July 2009

“Intense and full-bodied, with a core of rich pear, fig, honeydew melon and spicy, toasty oak that’s balanced and complex.”

California GRAPEVINE

89 Points – April-May 2009

“Initially plush, appley, citrus and tropical fruit flavors with crisp acidity on the finish; lingering aftertaste. Highly recommended.”

CONNOISSEURS' GUIDE
TO CALIFORNIA WINE

88 Points – April 2009

“Very well-balanced overall, the wine is clean, focused and firm from front to back, and comes with enough juice and richness to be a good mate to sundry chicken dishes yet promises to find further roundness and a touch of complexity with age.”
